Shopsmith Sawdust Sessions

Each of these six sessions has been completely re-shot and re-mastered from their original versions which were webcast live during the Spring and Summer of 2008. Most are 25% to 30% longer than the original webcasts...contain the answers to viewer questions that were submitted up to two weeks after the original showings...include up to four times the amount of graphics originally presented on their accompanying blackboards...and average around two hours in length. Great must-see programs with much higher video and audio definition than their original presentations. ENJOY -- AT YOUR LEISURE!
